Summer Workshops

Sponsored by the Dartmouth High School Guidance Department

Common Application Boot Camp

Get an early start on your college applications!

Back by popular demand, guidance counselors will once again offer a free summer Common Application Boot Camp for rising seniors. Students will receive assistance with completing the Common Application, as well as any supplements required by individual schools. This year's sessions will be held on June 21st at DHS, from 8:00 a.m.-10:00 a.m. and 10:00 a.m.-12:00 p.m.

Students must sign up with Mrs. Peach in the Guidance Office no later than June 15th to reserve a spot. Space is limited and students will be enrolled on a first come, first served basis.

“Students should attend the Common Application Boot Camp because all questions can be answered and it gets you a head start on the college process, which anyone will tell you can be overwhelming, so it’s best to not get bogged down with it once the school year gets going.”

~Hayley Forsblom, Class of 2017

Summer SAT Prep Course

A new test prep option for students

Wouldn't it be nice if all colleges and universities were test optional? While we all hope for the day when this is the case, at some schools test scores still matter and we are pleased to offer students a summer SAT prep course for the first time at DHS. Catalyst Prep will run two summer intensives in July, one focused on Evidenced-Based Reading and Writing and the other in Mathematics. Students can register to take one or both, depending on their goals.

Evidence-Based Reading and Writing

July 10-July 13 from 8:00-10:00 a.m.

Mathematics

July 17-July 20 from 8:00-10 a.m.

College Essay Workshop

“Show, don't tell.” This is every admission counselor's advice to students when asked how to write a winning essay. (Easier said than done!) Composing a thoughtful, well-structured personal statement isn't something that can be produced in a single day. It takes time, a certain level of creativity, and a willingness to seek and use constructive feedback to craft a compelling and personal narrative that sets a student apart from the thousands of others applying for admission to the colleges of his/her choice.

The Guidance Department will offer an essay writing workshop this summer designed to assist students with the task of composing an essay that showcases their unique values and talents...before the chaos of senior year begins in September! This workshop is conveniently offered during the week of July 17th, after the SAT prep course in math.

Workshop Schedule

July 17 10:30-2:00, free write and first draft

July 18 10:30-2:00, individual feedback conferences, by appointment, and writing time

July 19 10:30-2:00, individual feedback conferences, by appointment, and writing time

July 20 10:30-2:00, produce final draft

The cost of the Essay Writing Workshop is $70.00. Students may register at:
