South Coast Children's Chorus

Summer SCCC SING! Camp & 2017-2018 Concert Season

We are a children's chorus made up of singers in grades K-12 from the Southeastern communities of Massachusetts including the greater Fall River, New Bedford and Taunton areas as well as the coastal communities situated near Cape Cod and Plymouth. Our older choruses are auditioned and our Preparatory Chorus is open to all with a love and interest in singing. We are a service minded group with a mission to share our musicmaking with diverse audiences throughout our own community and beyond. Our director is Dr. Tianxu Zhou who is also the conductor of the Sippican Choral Society and the University of Massachusetts Choruses.
